BEASTGRIP® x SanDisk® SSD Clamp Mount

Streamline your film and photo setup.

Make this clamp the new addition to your long recording session setup. Made from machined aluminum and equipped with soft, rubber padding, the BEASTGRIP® x SanDisk® SSD Clamp Mount is designed to help securely hold your SanDisk Extreme® Portable SSD (sold separately) or other SSDs during long recording sessions. You can seamlessly add extra storage while keeping your hands free, making this a fantastic tool for content creators recording HD video in ProRes HD on the iPhone 15 Pro series. This lightweight clamp attaches directly to the front of your Beastcage™, providing a sleek and compact setup, and includes a cold shoe mount so you can position it exactly where you need it.

HIGHLIGHTS

- PREMIUM BUILD. This clamp is crafted from machined 6061-T6 aluminum with a sleek, black, anodized finish for durability and aesthetics.
- ENHANCED PROTECTION. Silicone rubber padding helps safeguard your SanDisk Extreme® Portable SSD (sold separately) or other devices from impact.
- SEAMLESS INTEGRATION. Your clamp includes a front mount bracket for your cage, pre-installed for effortless attachment to your setup.
- MULTI-DEVICE COMPATIBILITY. The detachable cold shoe mount makes your clamp compatible with any camera rig, cage, or grip with a 1/4" 20 screw mount.
- ADJUSTABLE FIT. Your clamp can hold drives and devices ranging from 43mm to 60mm wide.
- WARRANTY PROTECTED. For extended support, your clamp is backed by a 2-year limited warranty¹.
